

Never Fail

I never gave up,
Because of my passion.

I never gave up,
Because of tradition.

I never gave up,
Because of my spirit.

I never gave up,
Because of the experience.

I never gave up,
Because of respect of my family.

I never gave up,
Because of my staff.

I never gave up,
Because of the support.

I never gave up,
Because I believe in teaching others
To never give up, to believe in yourself,
To live our dreams and face our fears.

I never gave up,
Because of my personal achievement.

I never gave up,
Because I know what is the TRUTH.

I never gave up,
Because I am positive and affirm everyday.

I never gave up,
Because of my passion for yoga.

I never gave up,
Because of my children.

I never gave up.
I hope you will never give up
In believing in your faith in
Yourself and your dreams.

We only attract what we put out.

If I gave up
Then everything around me would have given up on me.

I never gave up
So everything around me – supported me.

TRUTH
Which is in all of us.
